Statistical CommissionBackground documentFifty-first sessionAvailable in English only3 - 6 March 2020Item 3(w) of the provisional agendaItems for discussion and decision: working methods of the Statistical Commission

Potential linkages identified by the chairs of groups under the Statistical Commission

Prepared by the Bureau of the Statistical Commission

Group Potential interlinkages identified Working Group on Open Data * The Expert Group on National Quality Assurance Frameworks finds that results of this group could usefully be taken into account. * The Global Working Group on Big Data for Official Statistics has identified potential common work streams. * The Partnership on Measuring Information and Communications Technology for Development has identified potential common work streams. Praia Group on Governance Statistics * Given that refugees and internally displaced persons (IDP) are particularly vulnerable to many of the SDG 16 indicators, the Expert Group on Refugee and IDP Statistics would like to collaborate with this group on developing quesitons for household surveys on topics such as safety, trafficking and homicides. * The Expert Group on Migration Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed. Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice * The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group. * The Parie Group on Crime and Criminal Justice * The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity. Inter-agency and Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas re finds that results of this group could usefully be taken into account.* The Global Working Group on Big Data for Official Statistics has identified potential common work streams.* The Partnership on Measuring Information and Communications Technology for Development has identified potential common work streams.Praia Group on Governance Statistics* Given that refugees and internally displaced persons (IDP) are particularly vulnerable to many of the SDG 16 indicators, the Expert Group on Refugee and IDP Statistics would dike to collaborate with this group on developing questions for household surveys on topics such as safety, trafficking and homicides. * The Expert Group on Migration Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Crime and Criminal JusticeAdvisory Expert Group on Crime and Gender Statistics* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Pine Trane Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to exchange information and inguts with this group.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to exchange in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Ageing-related
* The Global Working Group on Big Data for Official Statistics has identified potential common work streams. * The Partnership on Measuring Information and Communications Technology for Development has identified potential common work streams. Praia Group on Governance Statistics * Given that refugees and internally displaced persons (IDP) are particularly vulnerable to many of the SDG 16 indicators, the Expert Group on Refugee and IDP Statistics would like to collaborate with this group on developing questions for household surveys on topics such as safety, trafficking and homicides. * The Expert Group on Migration Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed. Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice * The Inter-secretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics * The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity. Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identifide potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to a identified potential common work streams.* The Partnership on Measuring Information and Communications Technology for Development has identified potential common work streams.Praia Group on Governance Statistics* Given that refugees and internally displaced persons (IDP) are particularly vulnerable to many of the SDG 16 indicators, the Expert Group on Refugee and IDP Statistics would like to collaborate with this group on developing questions for household surveys on topics such as safety, trafficking and homicides. * The Expert Group on Migration Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common work streams. * The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Governance Statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced PersonsInter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expert Group on Foundary in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and Internally Displ
* The Partnership on Measuring Information and Communications Technology for Development has identified potential common work streams.Praia Group on Governance Statistics* Given that refugees and internally displaced persons (IDP) are particularly vulnerable to many of the SDG 16 indicators, the Expert Group on Refugee and IDP Statistics would like to collaborate with this group on Refugee and IDP Statistics would like to collaborate with this group on Refugee and IDP Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Inter-agency and E Technology for Development has identified potential common work streams.Praia Group on Governance Statistics* Given that refugees and internally displaced persons (IDP) are particularly vulnerable to many of the SDG 16 indicators, the Expert Group on Refugee and IDP Statistics would like to collaborate with this group on developing questions for household surveys on topics such as safety, trafficking and homicides. * The Expert Group on Migration Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common work streams.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics model for the expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Inter-segency and Expert Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated DataInterfagency and Expert Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Household Surveys has ident streams.Praia Group on Governance Statistics* Given that refugees and internally displaced persons (IDP) are particularly vulnerable to many of the SDG 16 indicators, the Expert Group on Refugee and IDP Statistics would like to collaborate with this group on developing questions for household surveys on topics such as safety, trafficking and homicides. * The Expert Group on Migration Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecreta Praia Group on Governance Statistics * Given that refugees and internally displaced persons (IDP) are particularly vulnerable to many of the SDG 16 indicators, the Expert Group on Refugee and IDP Statistics would like to collaborate with this group on developing questions for household surveys on topics such as safety, trafficking and homicides. * The Expert Group on Migration Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed. Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice * The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that ti is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group. * The Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity. Inter-agency and Expert Group on * The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to exchange information, and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and forced migration, particularly vulnerable to many of the SDG 16 indicators, the Expert Group on Refugee and IDP Statistics would like to collaborate with this group on developing questions for household surveys on topics such as safety, trafficking and homicides.* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Refuge and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Expert Group on Refuge and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics has depending on dependent on this group. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group Group on Refugee and IDP Statistics would like to collaborate with this group on developing questions for household surveys on topics such as safety, trafficking and homicides.* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons StatisticsInter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified potential common works this group on developing questions for household surveys on topics such as safety, trafficking and homicides.* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Gevernance Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Inter-agency on Expert Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.
such as safety, trafficking and homicides.* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to exchange in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Inter-segency on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics and Age-disaggregated DataTitchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.
such as safety, trafficking and homicides.* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to exchange in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Inter-segency on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics and Age-disaggregated DataTitchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.
* The Expert Group on Nigration Statistics would consider collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expert foroup on Gouder Statistics has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expert Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expert Group on Gouder Statistics has identified botential common workstreams and finds that it i collaborating topics such as indicators on access to information and discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to exchange in formation and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a discrimination, which are considered relevant for migrants. Overall the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed.* The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams.* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Household Surveys has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a the interest lies in ensuring that the aspects of migrants are taken into consideration in methods proposed.* The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Gender Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a into consideration in methods proposed.* The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams.* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender StatisticsGender StatisticsStatisticsStatistics* The Inter-segency and Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a
* The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Governance Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Governance Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Governance Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a Advisory Expert Group on Crime and Criminal Justice* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are potential common work streams. * The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Governance Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a Criminal Justicepotential common work streams.* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence.* The Praia Group on Governance Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a
*The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics can offer expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence. * The Praia Group on Governance Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a expertise on gender dimensions of crime statistics and on measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence.* The Praia Group on Governance Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a measuring femicide and other forms of violence against women, including intimate partner violence.* The Praia Group on Governance Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a including intimate partner violence.* The Praia Group on Governance Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a
* The Praia Group on Governance Statistics would like to exchange information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a information and inputs with this newly established group to ensure complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a complementarity.Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics* The Expert Group on Refugee and Internally Displaced Persons Statistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a Gender StatisticsStatistics would like to explore closer collaboration with this group in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a in areas related to gender and forced migration, including indicators that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive. * The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a that are gender-sensitive and child-responsive.* The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a
* The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a to access knowledge and expertise from this group.Titchfield Group on Ageing-related Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics has identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a Titchfield Group on Ageing-related* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics hasStatistics and Age-disaggregated Dataidentified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a Statistics and Age-disaggregated Data identified this group as a potential partner to ensure women and men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a men of older ages are better accounted for and to promote a gender perspective in their work.
* The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.
* The IAEG-SDGs has a workstream on data disaggregation that has identified priorities policy issues related to ageing and older people and related data and indicator requirements; the Titchfield group is one of the key groups identified by the IAEG to be part of this

Weshington Crown or Dischillton	* The Inter according to Construct Construction Construction
Washington Group on Disability	* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics seeks to Statistics	pool expertise and knowledge with this group to better understand the nexus between gender and disability.
	* The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial
	to access knowledge and expertise from this group.
High-level Group for Partnership,	* Having put together an inventory of capacity building activities for Coordination and Capacity-Building	national statistical offices, the Global Network of Institutions for Statistical Training is seeking to make meaningful use of it.
	* The Working Group on Open Data has identified important areas for National Statistical Offices to implement open data that can be taken up by the HLG-PCCB in their workstream on the implementation of the data revolution.
	* The FoC on the FPOS has developed additional chapters of the implementation of the FPOS addressing the use of new data sources data that can be taken up by the HLG-PCCB in their workstream on the implementation of the data revolution.
Global Network of Institutions for	* The Expert Group on National Quality Assurance Frameworks
Statistical Training	seeks to partner with this group for the development and delivery of capacity building activities.
Inter-Agency and Expert Group on	* The Global Working Group on Big Data for Official Statistics has Sustainable Development Goal	identified a potential link for the improved measurement of several Indicators	of the SDG indicators.
Committee for the Coordination of	* The Global Working Group on Big Data for Official Statistics has Statistical Activities	identified potential collaboration opportunities.
Committee of the Chief Statisticians	* The Global Working Group on Big Data for Official Statistics has
of the United Nations System	identified potential collaboration opportunities.
Advisory Expert Group on National	* The London Group on Environmental Accounting follows the Accounts	revision of the System of National Accounts (SNA) but has no
, accounts	established cooperation in place as of now.
	* The Committee of Experts on Environmental Economic Accounting is contributing to the SNA revision process on Well Being and Sustainability, addressing the issues related to the SEEA.
Friends of the Chair group on the	* The Expert Group on National Quality Assurance Frameworks
Fundamental Principles of Official	finds that it needs to coordinate future actions, given the Statistics	complementary nature of these two groups.
Expert Group on Identifying Slum and	* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics would explore
Non-slum Enumeration Areas	collaboration in the area of disaggregation by migratory status, particularly for the SDG indicator 11.1.1 (Proportion of urban population living in slums, informal settlements or inadequate housing).
Expert group on City Prosperity Index	* The Expert Group on Migration Statistics finds that there are
Ference of the second match	potential common work streams.
Intersecretariat Working Group on	* The Inter-agency and Expert Group on Gender Statistics finds that Household Surveys	it is crucial to explore opportunities of collaboration to eliminate gender biases that may be induced in data collection methods utilised in household surveys.
Expert Group on the Integration of	* The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has Statistical and Geospatial Information	identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.
	te seese moniede and expense nom and Broak.

Expert Group on Refugee and	* The Intersecretariat Working Group on Household Surveys has Internally Displaced Persons Statistics	identified potential common workstreams and finds that it is crucial to access knowledge and expertise from this group.